

Final Exam for Explorations in Black Leadership

Take this final exam to see what you know about Black leaders. It should be a breeze if you've completed the other modules. Circle the correct answers below.

1. What is an oral history?
 - a. A grandmother telling a story
 - b. A systematically recorded interview to gain information about the past
 - c. Dental records
2. What is a good leader?
 - a. Someone who others follow
 - b. Someone who gives speeches, but doesn't listen to anyone else
 - c. Someone who tells others what to do
3. Black leaders are?
 - a. only from the Civil Rights Era
 - b. involved in many fields from writing to business
 - c. there are no Black leaders
4. Leaders can be?
 - a. individuals with special traits that are either innate or developed
 - b. created by movements at a critical time
 - c. people who see the need for change and do something about it
 - d. all of the above
5. A role model is?
 - a. a person who demonstrates a particular behavior, skill, or social role for another person to emulate
 - b. a person who walks the cat walk in Milan
 - c. a person you draw in art class
6. A role model might be?
 - a. a special teacher or administrator
 - b. a family member
 - c. a neighbor or community leader
 - d. all of the above
7. Effective communication is?
 - a. when you tell someone what to do
 - b. when your message is accurately received
 - c. talking on the phone
8. An effective communicator may code-switch by?
 - a. using slang when talking with friends and peers
 - b. using Standard English when speaking with teachers and adults
 - c. both a and b
9. The Civil Rights Era was?
 - a. from around 1954 to 1968
 - b. the use of non-violent strategies to gain civil rights
 - c. when schools and public facilities became integrated
 - d. all of the above
10. Civil disobedience is?
 - a. band from the 1980's
 - b. talking back to a teacher
 - c. using non-violent means to protest a law that is unjust
11. Civil Rights are?
 - a. rights guaranteed by the Constitution, Amendments, and laws
 - b. being kind to others
 - c. rights to do what ever we want to do when we want to do it
12. Social activism is?
 - a. when individuals act as the conscience and voice of many people within a society
 - b. drawing attention to a particular issue within a society in an attempt to make the problem better
 - c. both a and b
 - d. we don't need social activism as nothing ever improves anyway